

The Abelard School

Abelard: warm and vibrant online,
in school... or both!

1. Our home at 557 Church. 2. Even masked, Ms. Bratchuli is always ready to welcome us with a wave and a smile. 3. Sharing the camp fire at Orientation 2019. 4. Mad Hatter's Tea Party Fundraiser (2019).

1

2

1. Mr. Kennedy exploring the workings of the human mind with the Grade 11 Anthropology, Sociology, and Psychology class. 2. Our science lab is a hub of experimentation (2019).

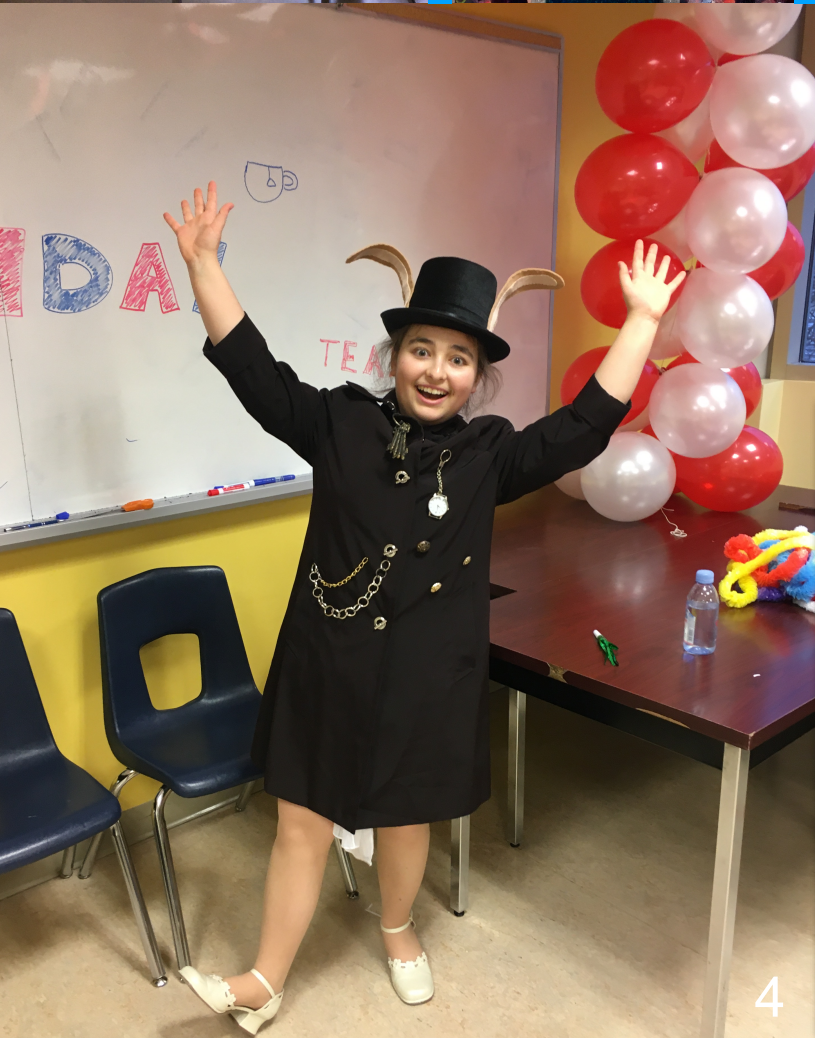

1

2

3

4

1. Math class stays focused despite the streamers left over from last year's Mad Hatter's Tea Party. 2. Student artwork enlivens the halls. 3. The socially distant English classroom. 4. The March Hare herself! 5. Getting to know Canadian poet Al Purdy at Orientation 2020.

5

1

2

1. Mme. Rossinsky's class experiencing the beauty of French synchronously in class and at home via Zoom. 2. Spirit Day 2019 dynamic duos. 3. A strong show of hands.

3

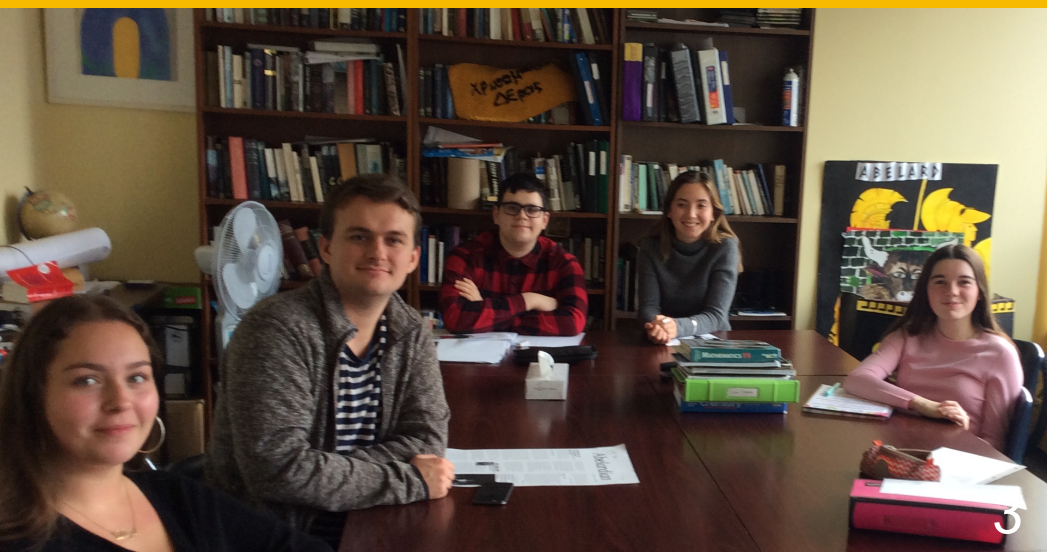

1

2

1. Canadian History with Mr. Young. 2. Cool Jazz Abelard-style at the Palmerston Library (early 2020). 3. National Magazine Award winner and Abelard alumnus Max Binks Collier with the Writer's Craft class (2019). 4. Abelardians participating in the Certamen Classics Competition (2019).

3

4

1. Student working at an Electron microscope in the school lab last year. 2. This year, her ingenious hack allows Dr. Schwartz's students at home to see her plenaria through her own microscope. 3. Experiencing the joy of heights at Abelard's 2019 Orientation.

The Abelard School

The sky's the limit!

